President Wilson Prepares Nomination, but Delays Sending It to Senate.

CONGRESS IS CALLED TO MEET ON APRIL 7

ASHINGTON, D. C., March 17. , O O O O O O O O O O -The nomination of chairman William F, McCombs of the Democratic national committee to be ambassader to France was prepared at the white house today and as it was about to be transmitted to the senate it was withheld at Mr. Mc-Comba's request. Mr. McCombs has decided to accept the post and it is said the delay does not mean a change In his intentions.

Congress to Meet on April 7. President Wilson today issued the formal proclamation convening con-gress in extra session at noon April

The president's pronouncement today was brief. It stated merely that "whereas, public interests require," congress would be convened in extra sension by order of the executive. President Wilson plans to point out specifically his wishes for the extra session in his first message, in preparation. This, it is known from talks the president has had with members of congress, will outline the administration idea of how the tariff should be revised and just what schedules should be taken up.

Tariff and Currency Beform,

Tariff and Currency Reform, The belief is general that the en-tire message will be taken up with a discussion of the tariff, with the exception of the last paragraph or two, which will draw attention to the need of currency legislation at the earliest possible moment and will indicate the purpose of the president to send later a special message on that or other subjects which he believes should be taken up by the new congress.

Police captains in charge of the men along the line of march of the suffrage parade on March I had their innings today before the senate sub-committee investigating the disorder that interfered with the procession. Capt. J. H. Hollenberger, in command of the force on the section of the avenue where great disorder occurred, said that when he and his men reached their posts at 1:30 o'clock on the day of the parade the street was filled with people from building line to building line.

"At no time did I have the crowd under control," said the captain. "As fast as we would force one man back two would fill his place."

His men, he said, made eight arrests for disorderly conduct. Unable to Control Crowds at Parade,

SENATORS OF THE SOUTHWEST PLEASED

Their Committee Assignments of Texas, New Mexico and Arisona Senutors Are Satisfactory.

Washington, D. C., March 17 .- Texas and Arizona fared especially well in the senate committee assignments for the sixty-third congress, just announced by the steering committee of Sepator Sheppard is chalrman of expenditures in the department of agri-culture. Culberson heads the judiciary committee. Ashurst is chairman of the industrial expositions committee. industrial expositions committee, Smith is chairman of conservation of Senators Cairon and Fall, being new Senators Catron and Fall, being new Republican members and in the mi-nority, were not given chalrmanships, though they were put on important committees. Following are the com-mittee assignments of the six senators: Culberson, judiciary chalrman, appro-priations, coast and insular survey, while health and national operations public health and national quarantine, examination civil service, public build-lngs and grounds; Sheppard, expendi-tures department of agriculture, chairlarge and grounds; Sheppard, expenditures department of agriculture, chairman; agriculture and forestry, ceasor coast defenses, routes to seaboard, commerce, irrigation and reclamation of arid lands; Ashurst, industrial expositions, chairman; Indian affairs, forest reserves and protection of game, public buildings and grounds, woman suffrage, judiciary, mines and miniog, pensions; Smith, conservation of national resources, chairman; public lands, district of Columbia, foreign relations, geological survey, milroads, irrigation and reclamation of arid lands, printling, public lands, Catron, expenditures interior department, irrigation and reclamation of arid lands, industrial exposition, military affairs, postoffices and post roads; Fall, district of Columbia, expenditures department of commerce and labor, geological survey, indian affairs, mines and mining, Pacific islands and Porta Rico, public offices and post roads; Fall, district of Columbia, expenditures department of commerce and labor, geological survey, indian affairs, mines and mining. Facific islands and Porto Rico, public lands.

From the assignments it will be seen that the three states are well represented on six important committees in which the southwest is most interested, viz. Irrigation, irrigation and reclamation of arid lands, indian affairs, mines and mining, geological survey and foreign relations, because of the Mexican troubles.

All the senators today said they were pleased with their assignments.

Southwest. Mr. Davis was an alderman a number of years ago.

Ion Sorenson, another candidate for alderman, is another candidate for alderman and brightness of the property bers, including the three-story Morgan building on Mesa avenue in the rear of the postoffice.

Mr. Putnam and Dr. Miller.

G. P. Putnam, another candidate for alderman, was for over 15 years superintendent of the public schools (Continued on Next Page.)

V. R. Stiles, John Sorenson, M. B. Davis, G. P. Putnam. For Aldermen.

DR. FELIX MILLER AND TURNER ARE ON † CITIZENS' TICKET FOR THE CITY ELECTION.

James A. Dick for mayor.
V. B. Stiles, John Sorenson, O.
M. B. Davis and G. P. Putnam for aldermen. On the for city of Harry Turner for collector and &

. HIS is the ticket which will make the race against the Democratic nominees at the El Paso city election in April. The ticket has the backing of those who are opposed to the present city administration and is put out as a Citizens' ticket, on a good government platform, with "Law and order" as the pledge of those who are making the race and economy in the management of the city's affairs" as a promise of the

Will Enforce the Laws. One of the pledkes of the candidate for mayor is that the citizens of the city will not have to hire private detectives; to ferret out evidence of law violations if he is elected; he promises to see that the police do this. The ticket has been announced aftermany meetings of citizens who are opposed to the present administration. The dinner of the City club at the Paso del Norte Saturday night had absolutely nothing to do with it. There were over 26 members and guests of the club present at the meeting, and nothing was said at any time during the evening by any speaker about any proposed ticket or about the city campaign. The announcement today was a complete surprise to many who were present at the dinner. The City club is a new organization for the study and discussion of city affairs in general and is pledged not to introduce politics into its proceedings. The mayor and the judge would have been invited in if they had made their presence known. There was nothing to be mysterious about. The discussions were on general topics of local interest.

The men compasing the new ticket are smeng the strangest men in El. Paso.

J. A. Bick an Old Timer. One of the pledkes of the candidate posed to the present administration of the City citbs at the Pass of the Morte Saturday night had absorption of the City citbs at the Pass of the Morte Saturday night had absorption of the City citbs at the Pass of the City citbs at the Pass of the City of t from Las Vegas, New Mexico, where he was also engaged in business, after a residence there for 17 years, and originally came to New Mexico from Missouri. He was foreman of the grand jury that recently ordered the closing of the redlight district and has been identified with the fight to close and keep closed the gambling that has been operating in El Paso. Mr. Dick is a prominent member of the First Presbyterian church.

While a resident of Las Vegas, Mr. Dick served two terms in the city council of that city. When nominated for councilman, the opposition nominated nine different men during the campaign to run against him, but one after another they withdrew and left him a clear field. Just before the election, he was endorsed by the opposition and was elected without a vote being recorded against him, something unprecedented in the history of that town.

V. P. Stilles Well Known.

V. R. Stilles, candidate for alderman, is one of the proprietors of the Neff-Stilles company. He retired from the position of general passenger agent of the El Paso & Southwestern railroad to engage in this business. He has lived in the southwest for the past decade and was first a telegraph operator for the Southwest for the past decade and was first a telegraph operator for the Southwest for the past decade and was first a telegraph operator for the Southwestern railroad, then agent for the company at Bisbee and later the company's general passenger agent. He is one of the best known men in the southwest. At present he is president of the El Pano chamber of Commerce. More Pranisent Men.

More Prominent Men.

More Prominent Men.

M. B. Davis, another candidate for alderman, has lived in El Paso since it was a village. He came here as local agent of the Wells Fargo Express company and when he retired about a year ago, was assistant sup-crintendent in charge of a large district. He is a large property owner of El Paso and, like Mr. Stiles, has a wide acquaintance in the entire southwest. Mr. Davis was an alder-

ALPINE DISAPPEARANCE MYSTERY IS UNCLEARED

Alpine, Texas, March 17.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of indge N. Q. Tanquary, of Fort Stockton, on March 4, is still unsolved. On Saturday, after the discovery of his ditched car, five miles east of Alpine, a possible headed by sheriff J. A. Walton, and including W. H. Harrison, Verge Fuller, "Gen." Jones, Anja Wilson, Samuel Harmon, Hood Mendel, Scott Russell, Stroud Ashley, E. C. Williams, F. Williams, Nay Rowles, W. F. McGaughy and Glenn Rokernot, set out to search for his body, on the generally held assumption that he had been murdered and robbed. The posse returned with the search for his body, the chief of the collected with the march of appearance is a recent decision of the Denver court of appeals, which gave a judgment against judge Tanquary for a sum said to approximate $30,000, which he had been awarded by a former court decision for his services as executor of a large estate. sumption that he had been intracted and robbed. The posse returned without having found the object of their search, and sheriff Walton gave out his official opinion that there was no evidence in the neighborhood of the car to which there were severe but, in his and a 32 hour rain, would not, in his and a selection, buye obliterated traces of vector to the conviction that ludge languary had deliberately left the decision for his but a large estate.

Both these theories agreed in suggesting that the missing man either flagged the eastbound evening train at Strobel, near where his car was left, or boarded his car was left, or boarded dence in the neighborhood of the car to warrant the supposition of nurder or viotence. The lapse of 10 days, during which there were severe dust storms and a 22 hour rain, would not. In his and a 22 hour rain, would not. In his been previously ascertained that he had not bought a ticket at the Alpine statephilon. Conductor Seamands, however, who was in charge of the train in question on March 4, is absolutely sure that

(Continued on Next Page.)

Governor Signs Bill Permitting Towns to Try Commission Form.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE HONORS ST. PATRICK

USTIN, Texas, March 17,-Gov-A ernor Colquitt today approved the senate bill permitting all cities and towns having a population of over 500 to adopt the commission form of government. He also signed the senate bill by Johnson permitting for formation of mutual hall in-Surance companies.

Says Bill Unconstitutional.

Because he claimed that the bill granting the water, light and power plant of Cuero unconditional rights to build dams across the Guadalupe river, the governor today held the measure unconstitutional and suggested in account of the large large. gested in a message to the legislature that the bill be recalled and his ob-jections eliminated. He also points out that a monopoly is possible under the bill.

St. Patrick Remembered. St. Patrick's Day was in evidence today in both branches of the legislature, when resolutions were adopted that when the legislature adjourns it shall do so in respect to St. Patrick's Considers Court Increase. The bouse spent the entire morning session considering the joint resolution by Hunter and Rowell providing for an increase in the memborship of the judges of the supreme court to nine members.

An amendment was offered to provide that the court shall be composed of one chief justice and four judges, instead of nine. This amendment caused debate and the house recessed.

nent, the lawmakers settled down to ousiness and with little or no debate saued finally the following house bills: By Rowell, abolishing hanging in Fexas and substituting electrocution; by Watson, of Mills, authorizing the By Rowell, abolishing hanging in Texas and substituting electrocution; by Watson, of Mills, authorizing the state of Texas to cooperate with the federal government to ascertain the best method of the distribution and conservation of the public waters for irrigation purposes; by Calvin and Dove, authorizing the establishment of farmers' public free libraries; by Henry of Wichita, authorizing and leasing of mineral rights by guardians; by Norris and Kirby, providing for making of a park out of the Fannin battlefield at Golldad; by Tarver, the supreme court jurisdiction bill which had been prepared by chief justice Brown and designed for the relief of that court; by Paddock and Gentry, authorizing the establishment of irrigation districts; by Morris, providing for teaching of cotton classification in state schools; by Dunn, providing for an agricultural station in his district; by Parker, authorizing the sterilization of a certain class of criminals, passed by vote of 72 to 19; by Harp, granting an extension of time to railroads in which to complete extension and otherwise comply with the terms of their charters; by Bradley, limiting the amount of bond issues county commissioners may authorize without a vote of the people to $2000; by Oliver, making drunkenness in public places a misdemeanor, by Mendell, providing for the redemption of land and town lots heretofore sold for taxes; by Watson, of Hays, providing for the condemnation of property by any incorporated city or town of property for the purpose of widening streets and alleys; by Wagstaff, providing that unrecorded brands shall be evidence of ownership.

State Huuse Repair Bill.

The house also passed to engrossment the house bill by Burmeister, authorizing an appropriation of $7500 for the repair of the roof of the state house.

The house then adjourned until Monday morning.

The house then adjourned until Mon-day morning. Passes Fish and Game Bill. The senate Saturday afternoon passed finally the bill by senator Wiley, perfecting the fish and game laws of the state. This is the bill which has been agreed to between game and fish commissioner. Sterett and practically all of the fish and oyster interests of the coast country. The bill is designed for the protection of fish and oysters and provides a closed season of two months.

and provides a closed season of two months.

Labor Measures.

Out of the 13 measures backed by the Inbor element of the state, there have thus far been only two to mass finally in the legislature and reach the executive department, the two bills being the railroad hospital bill and the bill which increases the scope and operations of the state inspector of masonry. The hospital bill gives the railway employes the control of these hospitals on the railroads where they are maintained, and the masonry bill permits the inspector to employ assistants and increases the duties of this official. The governor has signed the last named bill and the other is now in the executive department. While the joint legislative board which is here in the interest of these labor measures is not entirely satisfied with the present status of things, the board has not given up hope that the other measures will be enected. has not given up hope that the other measures will be enacted.

measures will be enacted.

Kimployes' Compensation.

The Collins employes' compensation bill, which is a labor measure, has passed finally in the senate and has already received a favorable committee report by the house committee on labor. The house committee has replaced all the provisions stricken out by the senate, so that the bill as it will come before the house will be in its original form. The senate almost knocked out the efficiency of the measure with exemptions and amendments. ure with exemptions and amendments. The bill is expected to pass the house in its original form and it will be up to the senate to concur in the amend-ments, and should the senate refuse. then the bill be referred to a free con-ference committee. The mine oper-

(Continued on Next Page.)

Defeated Saturday, They Twenty Carrancistas and 15 Have Gathered For An-Federals Are Killed and 50 Are Wounded.

WINDOWS BLOCKED:

Nearly 50 soldiers were Buttle Lusts Over an Hour.

fresh assault. The street buttle continued for an hour and a half.

A handful of Carrancista constitutionalists, under cover of darkness this morning, crept into Nuevo Laredo, the Mexican port of entry opposite this city. After two hours fighting the Carrancistas retreated, No harm to Americans from buildess fighing across the border was reported.

Records Carried to American Side.

At dawn a salvo of rifle firing awoke the Americans in Laredo. The first sight that greeted them was a rush of refugues across the bridge to the American side.

Men and women carrying their children jammed the bridge, heedless of hurried wagon traffic. Numerous officials of Nuevo Laredo were among the refugees. The officers carried books and records by the armful.

Dir Trenches in Streets.

ol Brewer, commanding officer of 14th United States cavalry, or Eyes Missing From Rebel Dead.

IN FEDERAL HANDS

Salazar Is Reported to Be Near, but Has Not Demanded Surrender Nor Attacked the Place.

Salazar's rebel bunch failed to make good on the reported attack on Juarez

Monday. No further movement of the revolutionary forces was reported and no uneasiness was shown by the federal garrison in Justez. The 100 men who were said to have been in the hills garrien has two cannon and a number of rapid fire pieces.

Cooperating With Other Rebels.

Puebla Mex. March 17.—A detach-ment of 22 adherents of the rebel Za-pata, was captured by federal troops near here yesterday, taken to a neigh-oring form, lined up and shot without The action of the federals is approved by inhabitants of the district.

22 ZAPATISTAS

FEDERALS EXECUTE

Ing otherwise wounded.

JUAREZ IS AS YET

other Attack on Ojeda EXECUTION OF

REBEL PRISONERS

N ACO, Aris., March 17.—Bracamonte and Calles are this aftermoon east of Naco with 860

L AREDO, TEX. March 17.—Streets of Nuevo Laredo, the Mexican town opposite this city, were the "Constitutionalists," including 300, aix scene of a battle this forenoon in which miles south of Naco and four miles 29 Carrancistas and 15 federals were from San Jose on the railroad to killed.
Cananca and 300 or more west of wounded town. The latter were observed mov-town. The latter were observed moving toward Naco at 8 o'clock this morning by the United States patrol. These are the rebel forces from Nogales, which Bracamonto expected to arrive yesterday.

Last night at least 200 Yaquis descrited Ojeda and came to the United States. These are the soldiers who did all the fighting Saturday aside from the artillery of Ojeda.

Four troops of United States cavalry—A. R. and D. of the Ninth, and B. of the Fifth—are here and Col. Guilfoyle will arrive this afternoon to take direct oversight of the forces protecting Naco. Arizona.

There is talk that Gen. Ojeda is going to evacuate Naco and try to join forces with the federals at Cananea.

Ojeda Trics to Get Train.

the line to seep back deserters. A ma-chine gun has been added to the mili-tary of Naco Ariz. The commanding officer has carte blanche to order more troops if he needs them.

The lower part of a big adobe build-ing is reserved for citizens to take pro-tection in when the attack is made. tection in when the attack is made.

Col Escondon, of Gen. Ojeda's com-mand, has been alrested by United States civil authorities and this is caus-It was reported that many persons had been wounded in the fighting in ing considerable feeling on the part of Mexican federals. An Associated Press correspondent, walking through the battlefield saw bodles of dead rebels with thoir eyes apparently kicked out. Several had been shot through the head, after be-

Artillery Did the Work.

It was the artillery that enabled the federals so easily to whip twice their number of state troops Saturday, when the federals surprised the 900 rebels about to attack Naco, and, marching suddenly out of town, opened the fight. The firing was furious from the start. The federals at once brought into play three field pieces. The state troops outposts retreated in face of the artillery fire. The federals pressed forward, encountering the main group of the Calles "Constitutionalists."

Fire too Heavy for Rebels. Artillery Did the Work.

Fire too Heavy for Rebels. The result was a deafening fire from both sides. Each held their positions firmly. Bracamonte's group, which was advancing on Naco at the time of Ojeda's unexpected departure, then began moving to the assistance of Calles but the rapid-fire and field guns of the federals proved too much for the state troops and they finally fled in panic. They did not stop until they had retreated 20 miles from the border, into the Ajo mountains.

The general engagement lasted The general engagement lasted about three hours. Gen. Ojeda's artillers was able to dislodge the rebels from each point as they fell back. Four robel regiments crossed to the American side during the early part of the engagement and were taken in the engagement and were taken in hand by the United States patrol. Later a wounded rebel picked up on the field by reporters was brought back to the and turned over to the United Douglas Doctor's Escapade. Douglas Doctor's Escapade.

Dr. F. W. Randall, city physician of Douglas, Ariz., who was near the rebel forces at the beginning of the engagement, in an automobile, for some unknown reason abandoned the machine in Mexican territory, leaving a Mexican boy with it, and was not heard of until Sunday, when he appeared at Agua Prieta with some of the retreating rebels.

After the battle, Calles and Bracamonte, escorted by a hundred men, re-turned to Agua Prieta, presumably for some fort of a conference, while their main army retreated to the hills south of Naco. Dr. Randall returned with Calles and Bracamonte. When the doctor's car was located, It and the Mexican boy were surrounded by a guard of federal soldiers, the officer of which was wearing the doctor's overcoat, and would give no information regarding the doctor's where-

A special meeting of county board of supervisors has been called by chairman August Hickey, of Tomb-(Continued on Page Three.)

DAILY RIDDLES

1. Is there any similarity be-tween the atmosphere and a very young child? QUESTIONS. 2. What girl is good enough to Take inside from a dearth, and s. Take inside from a dearth, and leave celebrity.
4. Why is a caterpillar like bread?
5. With the letters of the words in Capitals fill in the blank in the following sentence with an appropriate word: I MOB SEVEN CATS owing to my. their appropriate numbers scattered through the Classified Advertising

SPECIAL TRAINS AND REGULAR TRAINS BRING THEM HERE BY THE HUNDREDS.

Many Are Accompanied by Their Families-Fort Worth to Get the Next Meeting and Al McFaddin to Be Reelected President-President of American National Livestock Association Is Here.

TRENCHES IN STREETS ATTLEMEN are coming in for the big roundup of the Cattle Raisers' association on special trains from all parts of Texas and on the regular trains from Arizona, New Mexico and old Mexico. The weather is the perfect El Paso brand, the streets are hung heavy with the white, crimson and white of the Cattle Raisers' association, and filled with the crowds of happy cattlemen and their families, here for a week of fun and renewal of friendships

The special trains from Fort Worth, Victoria, San Antonio and other east Texas cities poured their crowds into the herd of preconvention visitors and 24 hours before president Al. M. McFaddin was due to drop his gavel for the opening The Carrancistas retreated to the of the convention Tuesday morning, the city was alive with cowmen getting hills south of Nuevo Laredo, where acquainted all over again since the Fort Worth convention of 1942, and making they appeared to be preparing for a new friends among the Arizona and New Mexico folks.

EVERYTHING FILLED. Although El Paso is better equipped with hotels than it has ever been for any previous conventions, the capacity of all the downtown hotels will be taxed to care for the convention visitors, and cots will have to be resorted to for sleeping places for all the delegates. But they are here for the fun of the roundup and are not worrying about their sleeping places, as few expect to spend much time in bed while the convention is in progress. The chamber of commerce is doing excellent work in locating the visiting delegates. The lobbies of the hotels are a moving mass of humanity and the wives and daughters of the visiting comment are much in evidence. FORT WORTH TO WIN. Fort Worth is here to get the 1914 convention for that city, and, while Sass Antonio came on a special train and Oklahoma City is also a bidder for the honor of entertaining the Texas association, it is conceded by the prominent cattlemen that Fort Worth will land the next year's meeting. This will be in keeping with the precedent established by the convention in returning there each two years. This leaves El Paso in line for the 1915 convention, and the friends of this city are busy getting the fences up for that time. President Al. McFaddin, of Victoria, is a candidate for reelection as president of the association and has an excellent chance of being reelected, his friends say. To back up his candidacy, a special train filled with his friends from Victoria arrived Monday and are conducting a dignified campaign. San Angelo, Tex., is also after the 1914 convention. On the regular Texas & Pacific train Monday about 100 residents of that city and surrounding sections came in. They were all wearing budges of leather. These were inscribed with the name San Angelo 1914. A bull was burned in the center of a blue star on top. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS.

A meeting of the executive committee in the rooms of president McFaddin at the Paso del Norte Monday morning was the official opening of the convention. This meeting was for the purpose of organizing and preparing the reports to be made at the meeting Tnuesday. Ike T. Pryor, of San Antonio; James Callan, of Menardville, and W. W. Turney, of El Paso, ex-presidents of the association, are mingling with the arriving delegates. H. A. Jastro, president of the American National Livestock association, is here from his home in Bakersfield, Calif., to attend the convention. President Jastro was reelected at the recent Phoenix meeting of the American association, and is being shown special honors at the Texas association convention by president Mc-Faddin and the officers of the association.

W. N. Waddeell, chairman of the sanitary commission for Texas, is here to deliver an address on the relation of the cattlemen to the semitary commission, at the Wednesday session of the convention. Mr. Waddell is considered a national Early reports placed the number of arrancistas at 600, but when the re-cal began their number was estimated authority on livestock sanitation.

Decorators to Work All Night. night to get all of the red, white and red colors in place by the time the convention opens Tuesday morning. San Antonio street is completed in its dress of colors and the plasas are ready for the lights to be turned on tonight. The buildings are also being decorated and will be read for the opening of the convention Tuesday. The Passo del Norte, Sheldon, St. Regis and McCoy are covered with flags and festoons of color and the Mills building will have all of its flags out Tuesday for the remainder of the week.

Roundup weather is promised for the week by weather boss N. D. Lane, and (Continued on next page.)

Decorators will work all night to-night to get all of the red, white and red colors in place by the time the con-vention opens Tuesday morning. San enough to keep the crowds milling

Official Program For Texas Cattle Raisers' Convention

Tuesday, March 18.

at the principal hoters in honor of the arriving cattle raisers, by the Second cavalry military band.

10 a. m.—Convention opens at the En who were said to have been in the hills opposite the smelter were not seen again Monday and if Salazar is at Rancho Flores, his movements are unknown to the federal garrison in Juarez. Just as Salazar's rebels appear hear Juarez traffic was opened early today on the Mexico North Western railway as far southwest as Madera. The first train run over the line for many weeks arrived about midnight from the American lumbering center. Trains continue Pase theater, Prayer by Rev. P. J. Rice, paster of the First Christian church and presifcan lumbering center. Trains continue to run on the Mexican Central railway dent of the pasters' union.

Addresses of welcome by mayor C. E.
Kelly, W. W. Turney and C. C. McDonas far south as Chihuahua City, below which point the government-owned line is out of commission through the activity of Chihuaima Constitutionalists. As far as Col. Vasquez has learned at-Juarez Salazar's forces remain in the hills about Rancho Flores. A small

2 to 11.—Concert and serenade in the Washington, plaras and hotels by Reyes's Mexican | 2 to 5 p.

Juarez, Salazar's forces remain in the hills about Rancho Flores. A small group was reported today at Bauche.

Rebels Appear at Smelter.

One hundred horsemen appeared on the Rio Grande, opposite the El Paso smelter hast night.

They were sighted by United States troops of the border patrol as the rebels watered their mounts. In conversations over the river, the new arrivals reported that the major portion of Salazar's command was at the Flores ranch, only three miles south west of Juarez. Before leaving his camp below Columbus, N. M., a few days ago, Salazar issued a proclamation amnouncing introduction and referring of resolutions; brief talks by prominent members; address by Claude B. Hudspeth; address, "The Relation of the Cuttlemen to the Saultary Commission," by W. N. Waddell chairman of the livestock saultary commission of Texas; address, by A. D. Melvin, representative of the bureau of animal industry, of n. m .- Convention reassembles; issued a proclamation announcing against the Huerta national government, and advancing the presidential claims of Emillo Vasquez Gomez, who accompanies him it was supposed previously that Sainzar, like Orozco, had accepted the provisional government at Mexico City.

s to II a. in.—Concert and serenades in the hotels and plazas by Concha's place; adjournment.

9:45 a. in. to peon.—Automobile rides for women over the city and valley singly Mexicals.

9:30 a. m.—Convention reconveness at the theater; address, The Helation of the Law and Its Administration to the Cattle Industry, by S. H. Lowan, of Fort Worth; reports of committees; discussion of resolutions; election of officers; appointment of executive and friends.

2 to 5 p. m.—Informal reception for the visiting women in the ball room of the new hotel, by the Women's club, 5 to 7 p. m.—Serenades by Medical's Mexican band.

elly, W. W. Turney and C. C. McDon-id.

Response by W. D. Davis, of Fort their wives, by the El Paso Glee chib. under the direction of Parvin Witte.

Wednesday, March 19.

wannington.

3 to 5 p. m.—Reception to visiting women by Mrs. Joseph H. Nations and Mrs. Josephine Nations Morfit.

2:30 to 4 p. m.—Military review at Port Eliza.

Thursday, March 20. 2 to 11 a. m .- Concert and serenades | committee; selection of next meeting

For the Women.

Cooperating With Other Rebels.
Salazar is said to be operating in combination with the Sonora state forces, and also cooperating with the "Constitutionalists" of southern Chimuhua, where already many districts are in revolt against the Huertz government. Scoret agents have exposed what they assert is a general plan for the operation of the anti-administration campaign in the states of Sonora. Chihushua, Coahuila and Sinaica.

Col. Juan N. Vasques, in command at Juarez, made no move Sunday night against the rebel advance. The Juarez garriery has two curnen and a number

The women's committee on entertainment for the wives and daughters of the cattlemen have arranged a good prograin.

The women selected to have charge of the entertainment are: Mesdames of the entertainment are: Mesdames of the entertainment are: Mesdames A. P. Averill, W. R. Brown, W. W. Turney, S. H. Sutherland, S. J. Fennell and A. W. Foster.

The entertainment begins on Tuesday afternoon, March 18, from 2 to 5. This will be for registration and an informal reception will be given by the members of the cattlemen at her home, 304 Maggeffin avenue.

Wednesday evening Mrs. W. W. Turney will entertain with a reception from 8.39 until 11 octock, at her home on Montana street.

Thursday there will be an automobile drive. The women will be cut for three hours. This ride will be cut for three hours and the Country club. At the club an informal reception will be given by the members of the woman's A. P. Averill.

A. P. Averill.

A. P. Averill.

A. W. Foster.

The entertainment begins on Tuesday afternoon. March 18, from 3 to 5.

This will be for registration and an informal reception will be held on the mezzanine floor of Hotel Paso del Norte. The women of the Women's club. Norte. The women of the Women's club.

Will be hostesses.

Tuesday evening there will be a concert at the El Paso theater, arranged by Parvin Witte.

Wednesday, from 3 to 5. Mix. J. H. Nations will tender a reception to the given at the Paso dil Norte hotel.